

Wednesday 6th May, Year 5

Hi, everyone! Hope you are all ok.

I'm enjoying our weekly phone calls and I'm really pleased that most of you are trying hard with your online learning.

Please remember that your learning shouldn't be taking more than an hour per subject at the very most. During the hour, some of you will complete all the subject's set activities and challenges, whereas others will manage one or two. Don't worry about this – just try your best and work at your own pace!
