Knowledge Progression

How are landscapes represented in the work of Impressionist artists? How can I use these techniques in my work?

How are landscapes represented in the work of cubist artists? How can I use these techniques in my work?

How are landscapes represented in the work of pointillist artists? How can I use these techniques in my work?

How are landscapes represented by collage artists? How can I use these techniques in my work?

How are landscapes represented in pop art? How can I use these techniques in my work?

Design Criteria and Evaluation

Study and then use techniques and skills used in a range of landscape artists' work to create a series of related images in different artistic styles.

Do the finished artwork demonstrate the learnt techniques? What improvements could be made?

Curriculum Coverage

- Create sketch books to record their observations and use them to review and revisit ideas
- Improve their mastery of art and design techniques including drawing, painting and sculpture with a range of materials (for example, pencil, charcoal, paint, clay)
- Be taught about great artists, architects and designers in history

Skills Progression

Select and record from first hand observation, experience and imagination, and explore ideas for different purposes.

Question and make thoughtful observations about starting points and select ideas and processes to use in their work.

Explore the roles and purposes of artists, craftspeople and designers working in different times and cultures.

Compare ideas, methods and approaches in their own and others' work and say what they think and feel about them.

Adapt their work according to their views and describe how they might develop it further.

Choose appropriate paint, paper and implements to adapt and extend their work.

Carry out preliminary studies, test media and materials and mix appropriate colours.

Work from a variety of sources, inc. those researched independently.

Show an awareness of how paintings are created (composition).
