English

Yesterday you designed your own sweet or chocolate. Look at this design. Can you describe what you see? Do you like this picture? Can you say why you like/dislike it? Who do you think built this house? Why did they build it?

Today you can play a game, you need to choose which train to play. Remember we have only learnt to do addition or subtraction, so choose one of those.

Have a lovely weekend, take care, why don't you try this weekend to see how much of a mile you can walk! Can you guess how far I walk everyday?
