

Friday 5th June

The next season is Autumn which is probably my favourite as it is my birthday and I love all the different changes in colour. What do America call Autumn?

English

Can you draw a character from a fairy tale, e.g. a knight, a princess, or another character? Can you write down words to describe your character? Can you write some sentences using these words?

Maths

Over the weekend or today can you go on a hunt for the following things

1. The lightest object
2. The coin that is the heaviest
3. The shortest stick
4. The longest leaf
5. The flower or object that is smaller than your thumb
6. Something that is longer than your handspan

Have fun!
